

Chapter 1 Intro

What Zeus had kept inside the box broke loose from their confinement
All that was foul was now unleashed upon the world
Pandora, unable to undo what she had done, fell into despair
As she grieved, she heard a feeble quiver from the box
She lifted the lid once more, and out fluttered a small, bright, most beautiful creature she had ever seen
It flapped its delicate wings as it danced around
Pandora, lightly brushing against her shoulder
Pandora immediately felt her angst melt away and her heart glow with warmth
It was hope that was kept in the innermost nook of the box
It trailed behind the miasma of darkness
Assuaging their ill-effects on humankind
Hope gave people the will to carry on living amidst the pain and strife

Chapter 2 Pandora's Box

They call me hope
Do you know why I'm hope?
Pandora's history, why I was born,
Given to humankind in good faith by the great gods
A ray of light that Pandora left in the box
Was transported into an innocent boy
Till the end, to be Bangtan's hope, frame
That's how my destiny was ordained
That's my name
A name deeply related to the myth
On my way
J to the hope
Jung to the hope
Jack in the box

The hands of Pandora
The last remaining hope
Jack in the box
Someone's light, someone's smile
Someone's hope, my art, someone's life
Time flows with hope, my name, someone's star
As my soul gets polished, comes my motto and vibe
That's how I got to submit my resume, finally My first attempt—Hope World—was a necessity
I aspire for growth
“What's my path?”
“What do I have to say?”
Just keep on doing my thang
The dream I have,
This dream forged by Zeus,
Was it his unique big picture?
Curiosity led my master to bring me to life
This is akin to Pandora's fate, so criminal
Yeah, now that I've experienced the world,
I see a myriad of ills that plague humans:
Greed, envy, grudge, jealousy
Revenge and hate,
Possibly for no reason
We need hope,
Whether it be large or small,
Not afraid even if we live like Benjamin Button
If my presence is felt, even a little,
I'll lead to shine on all you hidden little heroes
This box is like a well for a frog
It desires a big sea, jump
Even if I meet a disaster, I want to feel it
Jack in the box
Look at my title
Now that I've opened it,
I can now put trust in my name

Chapter 3 MORE

Yeah, I'm thirsty
Gotta be on top of the beat surfin'
I'm like a fish in the water
Soak up the music
Eenie, meenie, miney, moe
Dancing baby flow
Keep my passion, I gotta go
I'm still...not enough
Self-studying for 11 years, highlighted underlines only look good
Learning never stops
My creation comes after setbacks, failures
Not ready, but I make it move
Make it mine, make it right
Maybe it'll be someone's favorite song
That's worth half of my life, and its meaning and joy,
An impetus that helps me carry on
Bring it all
I'm doing it all
Hah, shout out
I say "more"
Hah, yeah, right
'Cause I want some more
Hah, shout out
I say "more"
Hah, yeah, right
'Cause I want some more

In my ear kick snare's audible, hit that
Moving nonstop without rest, make my mixtape
Even if I get feedback, I get back
Eat even bad ones like it's KitKat—sweet to me
Reciprocity, so useful
Criticism is like gas, I drive again toward the beat
I warn you all, I can be reckless
A Dali painting's intoxicating, commanding over me
Want it: stadium with my fans, even now
Raking up trophies, along with the Grammy
Fame, riches aren't everything, I already know it
My work makes me breathe, so I want MORE
Inhale, inhale, exhale, exhale
My craving feels as if it's alive
Bring it all
I'm doing it all

Chapter 4 STOP (There Are No Bad People in the World)

Right, say you have a conflict with a friend
Differing values, personalities; friendship tested daily
Even if you say it nice, that reaction...
Each wants in secret to say they did more, red sun
Please stop, stop, stop, stop, stop, stop, stop
Don't fight, fight, fight, fight, fight, fight, fight
Some folks seem vexing and harsh, but think again
How can we all be similar or the same?
Knowing we're all different in nature, be myself
I believe in one thing only:
"There are no bad people in the world"
Yeah, I also watch the news
But what's that?
Deadly criminal, is it a human being?
Crimes committed by those worse than animals
So hideous
To put it harshly, I feel the bastards aren't humans
Wait, stop, stop, stop, stop, stop, stop, stop
Calm down, down, down, down, down, down, down
Let's get back to the basics
And see them in a different light

Their upbringing, education, systematic structure
How different are they from mine?
I'll hold on to just one belief:
Human intrinsic goodness
Please be right
World's now ruled by smart technology
But not smart in so many things, we humans
Cyberspace filled with angry conversations
Some get sacrificed eventually
Volatile area
So, too many viruses
Even I won't escape from such defilement
Now
Stop, stop, stop, stop, stop, stop
Change our minds, minds, minds, minds, minds, minds
Our existence began through causal effect
Still, it's all up to our minds
We can make this world
Small steps can lead to big strides
World can change 'cause there are no bad people
That's right?

Chapter 5 = (Equal Sign)

We complement each other, make eye contact

No one is better than the other

We're all created equal

Let's roll

With love

With trust

With respect

Step by step

We're still unconcerned about the world

We must know what's going on

The change is coming soon

Perhaps we all need to do our bit

Even when I shout myself hoarse, it's not heard

I've experienced firsthand the differences

I felt it strongly

It's emotionally suffocating

The world is vast

Yet people's minds are narrow

We don't have to be the same

Why is being different considered a sin?

No matter your age,

No matter your gender,

No matter your nationality,

It's all our mission to solve

It starts with me to realize
The distinction between difference and prejudice
The victims of prejudice,
We need to know, they are us
Please
Hate'll paralyze your mind
Gotta see the other side
It costs ya nothin' to be kind
Not so different you and I
Lookin' for love in a different light
Until we find that equal sign
Same, the breathes we breathe
Same, the dreams we dream
Same, the way we laugh and cry
Same, we're all entities deserving respect
Just a piece to give strength
In the puzzle of our hearts
It'll all make sense one day
So I'm singing
For love in this world
Come on
Let's come together
Equality is you and me
